

Employee Policy Handbook

Section 1: Employment Categories

The company has three employment categories:

1. Full-Time Employee
2. Intern
3. Contract Employee

Each category follows different employment rules and exit procedures.

Section 2: Notice Period Policy

Full-time employees must serve a notice period of 60 days before resignation.

Interns must serve a notice period of 15 days before leaving the organization.

Contract employees follow project-specific exit timelines determined by their respective project managers.

Failure to complete the required notice period may result in delays in final settlement processing.

Section 3: Laptop Return Policy

All employees must return company-issued laptops before their final working day.

Interns must submit laptops to the IT department at least 2 days before their exit date.

Failure to return company assets may delay experience letter generation and final settlement.

Section 4: Cafeteria Policy

The cafeteria operates from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM on working days.

Breakfast is served from 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM.

Employees may use cafeteria services free of charge during official working hours.

Visitors are not allowed to access cafeteria facilities without prior approval.

Section 5: Health Insurance Policy

Health insurance benefits are available only to full-time employees.

Insurance coverage starts after successful completion of the probation period.

Interns and contract employees are not eligible for company-sponsored health insurance.

Questions regarding insurance claims should be directed to the HR department.

Section 6: Leave Policy

Full-time employees receive 24 annual leave days per calendar year.

Interns receive 6 leave days during their internship period.

Unused leave cannot be carried forward for interns.

Emergency leave requests must be approved by the reporting manager.

Section 7: Exit Process

Employees planning resignation should inform their manager before submitting a formal resignation request.

Interns must complete the following steps before leaving:

1. Serve the required notice period.
2. Return company-issued laptop.
3. Complete exit interview.
4. Obtain manager approval.

After successful completion of all exit formalities, the HR team will issue the experience letter.

Section 8: Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the notice period for interns?

A: Interns must serve a 15-day notice period.

Q: What is the notice period for full-time employees?

A: Full-time employees must serve a 60-day notice period.

Q: Who receives health insurance?

A: Only full-time employees receive company-sponsored health insurance.

Q: When should interns return laptops?

A: Interns must return laptops at least 2 days before their exit date.